Dear Class President,

Please join us on campus, Friday, February 27th for the bi-annual gathering of Penn's Class Presidents. This wonderful event has historically been attended by over 40 Class Presidents, representing nine decades of Alumni Leadership.

Whether you have recently graduated and keep your classmates connected to Penn as you begin your careers, or you are “old hands” at keeping your classmates in touch, Penn depends on you. You break records at reunions, engage alumni at regional events, and reach classmates through class newsletters and other class communications. You represent the best of PENN!

In appreciation of your leadership as Class President, the University and the Alumni Class Leadership Council (ACLC) would like to honor you for your dedicated service. We will also provide a forum for some “Ben Franklin” wisdom, and exchange of best practices, and plenty of time to socialize with your Presidential peers.

The conference will begin on Friday, February 27th with lunch and conclude with dinner. The President’s event will lead straight into Saturday’s Penn Alumni Volunteer Leadership Retreat, which you are also invited to attend. (ACLC members are already scheduled to attend.) The Leadership Retreat brings the Penn Alumni Board of Directors, the Board Committee members, and Regional Club Leaders to come together with their volunteer colleagues, to strategize about upcoming projects and events that cater to the Penn Alumni experience, and to get updates about recent happenings and developments at Penn. The Saturday retreat is optional for non-ACLC Class Presidents.

To register online for the Class Presidents Event visit www.alumni.upenn.edu/cp2015 or contact Emily Horner, Administrative Assistant for Classes and Reunions, 215.898.6421 / emhorner@upenn.edu.

We look forward to seeing you on campus for this milestone event.
