VENUE FOR WEDDINGS

Towering trees, lush gardens, and sweeping vistas provide an unparalleled environment for any special occasion. The Morris Arboretum’s 92-acre property offers a wide array of colorfully landscaped gardens, original Victorian architecture, fountains, and a spectacular collection of specimen trees. A wedding at Morris Arboretum offers a number of outdoor ceremony locations, followed by a reception at the Widener Visitor Center – a historic carriage house that features a unique tented area.

Choose from three exquisite outdoor locations for your ceremony. For an additional cost, you may host your ceremony in one of our specialty gardens, including the Rose or Pennock or the dramatic Out on a Limb canopy walk, 50 feet up in the treetops.

The Widener Visitor Center, a former carriage house, serves as the base for your wedding festivities and reception. In case of inclement weather, the carriage house provides an indoor alternative for your ceremony. An outdoor tented area adjacent to the historic Visitor Center can accommodate up to 175 guests for a sit-down reception. The Upper Gallery of the building is suitable for hosting a smaller reception of up to 65 guests.

For an outdoor reception with cocktails and hors d’oeuvres following the ceremony, your wedding party can experience a view from the top of the hill overlooking the Wissahickon Valley. Or for an additional cost, you can enjoy cocktails and hors d’oeuvres amidst the treetops, on the Out on a Limb canopy walk.
