In anticipation of our 50th Reunion, we have been giving a great deal of thought to “the Class of ’67 Legacy.” Our class has supported many wonderful projects since our 25th Reunion, but we agree that we are most proud of our class scholarships and the students we have enabled to attend Penn. Also, President Gutmann has identified student financial aid as a top priority for University fund raising. With that in mind, we have selected student financial aid as our “Class Gift”.

When we call on you to support our Class Gift, there are several ways you can do that:

• First - contribute to our two class scholarships IN ANY AMOUNT. We are referring to our Class of ’67 Endowed Scholarship and the Michael San Phillip Memorial Scholarship. Currently, we have four students receiving these scholarships. We would like to fully endow them and support more students. Howard Freedlander, our class president, has written a letter inside introducing our outstanding current scholarship students.

• Second - start your own named scholarship - a legacy in your name or to honor someone of your choice. Your $125,000 contribution (over 5 years) is matched with $25,000 by Penn’s Trustees.

• Third - add to a named scholarship. Approximately 30 classmates have contributed generously to named scholarships. As with new scholarships, for every additional $125,000 added, the University Trustees will match with $25,000.

Anyone who has attended the scholarship events (held at Penn in the fall and NYC in the spring) and has met the recipient of their scholarship, is euphoric about the impact their gift is having. The students are a joy and they are universally grateful for the opportunity to attend Penn.

Please feel free to contact us with any questions at karose67@gmail.com or ksachs@sachsbrs.com.

Sincerely,

Karen Bress Rose and Keith L. Sachs
Class Gift Co-Chairs

Newsletter Editor: Alice Murdoch Dagit, Class Vice President
Dear Classmates,

As you all well know, the Class of 1967’s two scholarships give me great pride. Our four recipients are impressive and appreciative. They likely might be undergraduates elsewhere without our generous help.

The Michael San Phillip Memorial Scholarship for scholar-athletes honors our classmate, who was killed on 9/11, by investing in the future. The three recipients and the recipient of the Class of 1967 Endowed Scholarship seem unabashed in their love of Penn.

Our newest San Phillip recipient is Rowaida Walid Attia, a freshman from Giza, Egypt, and a squash player. She wrote me, “Giving me the opportunity to study abroad at one of the best universities in the world is a dream come true. Coming to Penn seemed far out of reach for me, but you made it possible. Thank you so much!”

Virginia Burns, a sophomore from Brockton, MA, and a varsity swimmer, was the 2015 Ivy League Champion in the 500-yard freestyle, thus becoming one of seven women in Penn’s history to be the Ivy League champion. A Philosophy, Politics and Economics (PPE) major, she is considering a career in politics. She said that her freshman year “was one of the greatest years in my life.”

Our third San Phillip Scholarship recipient is Nicholas Bokun, a sophomore from Hobart, IN, and a member of the Penn varsity football team. He is studying finance at The Wharton School. He wrote, “After my time at Penn, I intend to pursue a career in the National Football League, or I plan to work in finance in the southwest region of the United States.”

Our Class of 1967 Endowed Scholarship recipient is Tim Schanstra, a sophomore from Vernon, NJ, majoring in chemical biomolecular engineering in the School of Engineering and Applied Science. A javelin thrower on Penn’s track and field team, Tim wrote, “I was recruited by Penn for track and field, and when I visited the school, I fell in love with the environment and the people. I grew up in a very rural area, and now I love being around the city.”

As of June 30, 2015, the market value of the San Phillip Memorial Scholarship was $846,618.50. The market value of the Class of 1967 Endowed Scholarship was $421,334.19. Our scholarships don’t provide entire tuitions, but are used as part of packages assembled by the university for our recipients. Our 50th Reunion provides an opportunity to fully fund these scholarships and perhaps expand our support to other students.

Rowaida, Virginia, Nicholas and Tim are at Penn because of us. That’s our proud legacy.

Please feel free to call me at 410-991-4254 or email me at freedfriends@goeaston.net if you want to know more about our two scholarships.

Best in Red and Blue,

Howard S. “Howdy” Freedlander
Class President

Our Class of ’67 Scholarship Recipients are Exceptional

Rowaida Walid Attia
Michael San Phillip Memorial Scholarship

Nicholas Bokun
Michael San Phillip Memorial Scholarship

Virginia Burns
Michael San Phillip Memorial Scholarship

Tim Schanstra
Class of 1967 Endowed Scholarship

Our 50th Reunion Weekend

May 12 - 15, 2017

DO NOT schedule any travel, weddings, etc., for that weekend!

There will be events all day and evening Friday May 12 through mid-day Sunday May 14, and then on Monday morning our class will march en masse in cap and gown regalia in the grand Academic Procession of the University’s 261st Commencement.
Pre-Reunion Events this Spring 2016 Across the Country

We are lining up terrific class get-togethers all over the country over the next 13 months in the build-up to our blow-out 50th Reunion. Penn President Amy Gutmann will even be at most of them. Here’s this Spring’s schedule. What have you missed? What would you still like to get to? We’d love to include other regions too if you, our partners-in-planning, have any suggestions.

Philadelphia
Wednesday June 29, 2016
Reception at the Philadelphia Museum of Art to view The Keith L. and Katherine Sachs Collection

Atlanta
Wednesday March 2, 2016
Reserved tables for Class of ’67 at Our Penn with Dr. Gutmann

London
Monday March 7, 2016
Reserved tables for Class of ’67 at Our Penn with Dr. Gutmann

Los Angeles
Saturday April 2, 2016
Reserved tables for Class of ’67 at Engaging Minds with Dr. Gutmann

Los Angeles
Details to follow
Party hosted by Trustee Paul Williams

San Francisco
Sunday April 3, 2016
Reserved tables for Class of ’67 at Engaging Minds with Dr. Gutmann

Washington D.C.
Monday April 18, 2016
Reserved tables for Class of ’67 at Our Penn with Dr. Gutmann

Washington D.C.
Spring 2016
Party and Game in the Washington Nationals’ Owner’s Suite

New York
Wednesday April 20, 2016
Class of ’67 Dinner at The Penn Club with Penn Prof. John Lapinski who calls elections for NBC

Boston
Tuesday April 26, 2016
Reserved tables for Class of ’67 at Our Penn with Dr. Gutmann

Chicago
Wednesday June 1, 2016
Reserved tables for Class of ’67 at Our Penn with Dr. Gutmann

South Florida
Details to follow

More Class of ’67 Regional Events to take place during our 50th Reunion year will be listed in our Fall Newsletter.

---

Reunion Weekend Events

What’s in store for our 50th Reunion 13 months from now?

The planning is heating up! Your Reunion Committee has been excitedly at work fashioning the absolutely most fun and most memorable Reunion Weekend we can dream up. And we are eager for your ideas, your input and your help. Please email any of your Co-Chairs with all your suggestions and/or to jump aboard the planning fun – our emails are listed at the end of your enormous Reunion Committee list. We’re having a ball brainstorming and exploring, and we’d love to investigate your ideas, especially ones relating to potential discussion topics, or to interesting classmates who might make fascinating presenters.

So ... what's up so far? For now you can count on a truly gorgeous Welcoming Opening Party on Friday night, a fabulous 50th Reunion bash in a fantastic location on Saturday night, a connecting/reconnecting Saturday Women’s Brunch, a concurrent Breakfast for the Men, one or more facilitated panel discussions of particular interest to ’67ers, a brief Memorial Service for the Classmates we've lost, opportunities to go off with your own friends for small-scale quality time, all-University activities to mingle with non-’67 friends, of course the traditional Saturday Picnic and Parade of Classes ... the list goes on and on, there will be just so, so many options to choose from! And it will all culminate in our march en masse in the University’s 260th Commencement Procession. Wow!

We want YOU to be with us May 12-15, 2017! Mark those dates and DO NOT schedule any conflicting travel, weddings or other events for that weekend!

We want YOU to share your thoughts for things you’d like to see happen.

We want YOU to share our excitement and enthusiasm for the Best Reunion Ever!

Looking forward to seeing you in 13 months,

Alice Murdoch Dagit
Class Vice President

---

www.alumni.upenn.edu/1967
50th Reunion Committee

These are the classmates who are aboard so far. We want YOU to join us on the committee too!

Rod Anderson
Genie Mason Ayers
John Bartle
Rod Berens
Dick Berry
Naomi Bloom
Ellen Varet Bock
Pete Borchardt
Jill Callen Bressler
Tom Burgher
Lynn Tredinnick Bush
Lynn Snyder Caterson
Marti Schwartz Certilman
Barbara Weintraub Ciongoli
John Clapper
Ed Cohen
Charlie Columbus
Dennis Custage
Alice Murdoch Dagit
Doug Dumm
David du Pont
Mark Ellman
Margie Solenberger Emshoff
Garry Feldman
Bruce Finsilver
Barry Forman
Lenore Horowitz Forsted
Michael Francis
Howdy Freedlander

Jeff Freedman
Andy Gelman
Joe Gian-Grasso
Mack Goode
Phyllis Kirschner Greenberg
Marcia Devins Greenberger
Janet Grossman
Nancy Jacobs Grossman
Merrill Dyshel Hakim
Peter Harris
Marilyn Rushworth Hayward
Diane Antonelli Herr
Esther Chaimoff Hershenhorn
Dennis Kaffel
Michael Kaye
Bob Kniffin
Rene Chalfin Kozloff
Bobbi Penneys Susselman Laufer
Bill Laurence
Susan Kriegel Leshnoff
Ted Lingenheld
Larry Litwin
James Lowe
Larry Lubow
Peter Mallory
Howard Marks
Alexis Mandell Berg Marmar
Roberta Rubenfein Matz
Joe Michaels
Myron Milch

Lynne Miller
Andrea Mitchell
Diana Taflin Myers
Bernard Natelson
JB Nutter
Barbara Berger Opotowsky
Susan Fishman Orlins
Bill Pauker
Nick Paumgarten
Arthur Pressman
Ed Purdy
Joe Rascoff
Nancy Reynolds
Gary Rose
Karen Bress Rose
Jeff Ross
Lynn Williams Ruthrauff
Keith Sachs
Michael Sales
Andi Bernstein Salsberg
Elaine Levy Schwartz
Carol Hecht Serotta
Amy Shelanski
Sandy Sorkin
Rick Struse
Marion Deutsch Taxin
Connie Decker Thompson
Joanne Ochman Weinberg
Paul Williams

To join our merry band to attract attendance at our Reunion Weekend, or to make any suggestions, please contact:

Howard Freedlander at freedfriends@goeaston.net
Karen Bress Rose at karose67@gmail.com
Larry Litwin at litwin67@nac.net

Alice Murdoch Dagit at alicedagit@aol.com
Keith Sachs at ksachs@sachsbrothers.com
Ed Purdy at ejpurdy@aol.com
The Fabulous Class of ‘67

• 1967 has donated nearly $70 million in the last 25 years, among the University’s most generous classes.
• 25th Reunion - The Class of 1967 Lobby in Houston Hall where our plaque lists our Major Donors
• 30th Reunion - The Maria Anderson Music Study Center at Van Pelt Library
• 35th Reunion - The Staircase Lounge at Van Pelt
• 40th Reunion - The Data Diner at Van Pelt
• 45th Reunion - The Franklin Corner in the Special Collections Center at Van Pelt
• The Class endows 4 scholarships, which is among the most of any class.
• In addition, 17 classmates have endowed their own named scholarships.
• The Board of Trustees includes 3 classmates: Howard Marks, Andrea Mitchell, and Paul Williams.
• We have additionally provided 2 more Trustees in the past: Larry Hirsch and Joe Rascoff.
• We received the David N. Tyre Award for Excellence in Class Communications for our 45th Reunion.
• We broke and continue to hold the all-time record for 40th Reunion giving at nearly $40 million.
• We broke all recent 45th Reunion attendance records.
• We intend to have the most attendance, and the most fun ever, at our 50th! Be there!

Class of ’67’s Facebook

Dear Classmates,

I want to invite you to join into a fun platform for memories and reflection available to all of us on Facebook. I’ve been looking back at life at Penn 50 years ago by linking to the issue of our school paper, The Daily Pennsylvania exactly 50 years later. The DP was, and I’m sure it still is, a terrific publication. As far as I’m concerned, the editorial staff did a better job of covering Penn news and the collegiate scene more generally than most “professional” publications did for the locales they were supposed to be covering. I don’t know if there were equivalents to the Pulitzer Prize for college newspapers in that era, but the DP certainly deserved one.

And, more important, so did the era in which we graduated: The War, the Civil Rights Movement, the nascent Women’s Movement, Consciousness Expansion, Independent Film, Folk Music, Rock Music, Visual Arts, the Generation Gap… you name it, we were in the middle of it. We made it happen!

So, please join more than 200 classmates who are already engaged in this inquisitive look back, helped along a little by me with some brief daily commentary. Our class Facebook page is a good place to consider and comment on how you were affected by life at Penn then and now. Please contact me at mjsales@comcast.net, and I’ll send you an invitation to log in directly to the board.

P.S. If you’re concerned about managing your privacy on Facebook, there are quite a few safeguards, and the technical experts at the Alumni office will help us do as much as possible to make sure that no one is subject to unwanted exposure.

See you on Facebook,

Michael Sales
Class Facebook Editor

www.facebook.com/groups/penn1967
Save the Dates

Alumni Weekend 2016
Friday, May 13, 2016 - Sunday, May 15, 2016
Join us at this year’s Alumni Weekend to reconnect with ’67 Classmates one year before our Big Weekend! Past President Judy Rodin will be there too celebrating her Class of ’66’s 50th Reunion. Register on the Alumni Weekend website www.alumni.upenn.edu/alumniweekend for the Alumni Picnic and Parade of Classes this May 14, 2016.

Homecoming
Saturday, October 29, 2016 • Penn vs. Brown
Class of ’67 Pre-Game Festivities

Our 50th REUNION 2017
Friday May 12 – Monday May 15, 2017
Mark your Calendar and be sure to Save those Dates for Reunion Weekend 2017

University of Pennsylvania