Dear Classmates,

Our 45th Reunion is almost here so mark your calendar to attend.

May 16-18, 2014

We promise you will have a great time.

Preparations for the reunion will begin at the Penn Reunion Leadership Conference, September 27-28, 2013.

You will be receiving your invitation shortly. Please join us and your fellow classmates to:

- plan memorable events
- organize personalized outreach efforts
- select a great class project and continue our scholarship effort

Our Class Survey is included so please take a moment to answer and return by September 1, 2013. We will use your responses to keep in touch and help guide our 45th Reunion planning.

With your help and participation we can make this our best Class Reunion to date!

Hope to see you at our 45th,

Mary Ellen and Jim
CLASS OF 1969 Scholarship

Meet our 2012-2013 Academic Year Recipients:

"I find myself a new person these days. My perspective of others and of the world has changed and I think it is largely due to attending Penn. I engage in conversations about topics I never thought I would discuss, learning about the world from my friends from Malaysia, Switzerland, Ukraine, Georgia, Zimbabwe, Russia, Lebanon, Egypt, and Puerto Rico. I look across borders and races, genders, and sexuality, and am learning, growing, and accepting. I could not be here without your help. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.”

Milton Academy
Major: International Relations
Minor: French, Deans List

"I thank you dearly for my financial aid. These past years haven’t been too easy for my parents, to whom I am extremely close. Financial struggles, for any family, create a stress that no one deserves to feel, and thus your help will give my parents some relief. Thank you endlessly.”

- Emily

Thank you again for your contributions to our Class Fund. To learn more about all our Class of 1969 Scholarship Recipients please visit our class web site: www.alumni.upenn.edu/class/1969.html

JOIN THE IVY STONE SOCIETY

Inspired by our most loyal donors, the Ivy Stone Society, honors Penn alumni who have made a gift of any amount to The Penn Fund for three or more consecutive years. Penn’s undergraduate classes have been leaving the legacy of an Ivy Stone, emblematic of class unity and pride, somewhere on campus since 1873. Through their annual gift to The Penn Fund, loyal alumni demonstrate the same kind of unity and pride by committing their support to the advancement of undergraduate education at Penn year after year.
CLASS OF 1969 45th Reunion Survey

Please help make our 45th Reunion a very special event by taking a moment to complete and return our class survey by September 1, 2013 to Alumni Relations - Sandra Scutt, 3533 Locust Walk, Philadelphia, PA 19104.

COURSERA

Did you know you could take the World’s Best Courses, Online, For Free! Learn with coursera...
Since its launch in April 2012, over 1.3 million people around the globe have entered the virtual classroom via this online platform for open-access, non-credit classes, available at no cost. As a founding partner, the University of Pennsylvania has offered 12 of these massive open online courses (known as MOOCs), on topics ranging from world music and poetry to health policy and calculus. This fall, Penn Alumni will host a private instance of Classical Studies’ Professor Peter Struck’s course, Greek and Roman Mythology, open exclusively to members of the Penn Alumni community. To learn more, visit www.coursera.org/penn.

PENN ALUMNI TRAVEL

Explore the world with Penn Alumni Travel.
Penn Alumni Travel offers a wide variety of tours to destinations around the world.
