Get your kicks at Penn '66!
Winter has finally arrived, but spring is not far behind and the campus will look a lot different in May when we celebrate our 50th Reunion.

Come Back in May!
More than 350 classmates have sent profile information to our 50th Reunion Yearbook. It’s really wonderful reading about them, but it will be much more fun to catch up in person with many of them and other classmates for a great celebration May 13-16. You will receive a ‘formal’ invitation within the next two weeks or so. While registration opens on March 1, do not wait until then to reserve a hotel room; do it now, as space can fill up quickly on this weekend. Click HERE for information about Alumni Weekend Hotel Blocks, and click HERE for our Class Website with a schedule of class events for the weekend.

Give Back to Penn!
When we entered Penn, perhaps most of us did not appreciate one of Franklin’s sage sayings, ‘If a man empties his purse into his head, no man can take it away from him. An investment in knowledge always pays the best interest.’

Over the years, I think that we’ve come to recognize the significance of this statement. We have much to celebrate at our 50th reunion, including knowing what Penn has meant in our lives, and acknowledging the significance of Franklin’s message by giving back, to offer the opportunity for a Penn education and experience to others. Since graduation, more than three quarters of us have made a gift, many giving in more than 10 or even 25 years.
Through that generosity, our class has supported student activities that benefit all undergraduates, and has enabled 162 scholarship students to benefit from a Penn education and experience, including 10 recipients of the Class of 1966 Endowed Scholarship and 152 who have been helped through scholarships endowed by 25 individual classmates (and their families). There is no better way to show the importance and impact of this generosity than by a real life story.

Click HERE or on the picture below to read the story of a recent ('14) recipient of the Class of 1966 Endowed Scholarship. We hope that it will serve as both a great example of what a Penn education can mean and as motivation to make a contribution to our 50th Reunion Class Gift. To make a gift, click HERE. You also can contact our Penn Fund partner, Josh Nay to make a gift or with questions at 215-746-6233 or at joshnay@upenn.edu!

Calling All Authors and Artists!
Friday evening’s party in Van Pelt is an appropriate venue to let people know about your works. We know that there are plenty of artists and authors out there in our Class. With sufficient interest, we’re planning to have an authors and artists corner to display what you’ve done- book covers and lists of published works, and digital pictures of exemplary works of art. In each case a brief profile about your work would be helpful. If you are interested, please contact our Penn Alumni Relations partner, Lisbeth Willis. At lisbethw@upenn.edu or 215-573-7061.
Best to all!
