Dear Classmates,

Our 45th Reunion is now in the memory book of great times, catching up with classmates and coming back to dear old Penn. So it is time for all ye loyal classmates now to mark your calendars and plan to join us for our 50th in May 2019. Look for our upcoming newsletters and e-communications that will keep you informed of class events and 50th Reunion planning.

Happy Holidays,

Jim and Mary Ellen

Friday, May 16

4:30 – 6:30 PM, “Get Together” Reception
Sweeten Alumni House

We started off our reunion weekend by reconnecting with classmates and enjoying some bar snacks and a cool beverage.

5:00 PM, President’s Reunion Volunteer Reception
Houston Hall, Hall of Flags

The Class of 1969’s Reunion Gift was proudly presented to Dr. Amy Gutmann.

7:00 – 11:00 PM, 45th Reunion “Oh What A Night” Party
Van Pelt-Dietrich Library

We celebrated our 45th Reunion atop the newly refurbished 6th Floor of the Van Pelt Library.

We experienced stunning evening views of the campus and the city while enjoying the student group Off the Beat and complimentary beer from Victory Brewing!

During cocktails and dining, we took a moment to visit our Class of 1969 “Things I’d Like to Say” display of 21 classmate publications.

Saturday, May 17

8:30 -10:00 AM, “Good Morning Sunshine!” Breakfast
The ARCH

We began the day with fellow classmates for an energizing continental breakfast while listening to an informative lecture about the University’s Green Spaces.

We stopped briefly for a class photo, before continuing on to our “Green River!” Green Campus Tour.

12:00 PM, “Do Your Thing” Parade of Classes
Penn Park

We did our thing and paraded to our tent to come together with fellow classmates, friends and our class student ambassadors who acted as our helpers and guides through the weekend. We all agreed after celebrating our 45th that we can’t wait for our 50th!

Please plan to join us on May 20, 2019!
