

 PENN68

Penn 1968 and Penn Athletics Invite you to Breakfast of Champions

Penn 1968 and Penn Athletics Invite you to
The Breakfast of Champions

Saturday, May 12th, 2018

Celebrate the Glory of Competing Red & Blue: Penn Athletics 1964-1968

The Breakfast buffet will be open from 8 – 11 am

Van Pelt Library 6th Floor

Chaired by Bill Creeden & Carolyn Marcus Jacobs

9:00 - 9:30 AM Current Penn Coaches will talk about Penn Athletics today, followed by a Q & A

9:30 - 11:30 AM Recognition of the Class of 1968 Champions

Special Recognition for Championship and Undefeated Teams*

- The 1967 & 1968 Heavyweight Crew Team - U.S. National Champions
- The 1968 Wrestling Team, Undefeated Winners of the Ivy League Title
- The 1968 Men's Tennis Team, Tied as Winners of the Ivy League Title
- The 1968 Undefeated Women's Basketball Team
- The 1968 First Collegiate Bobsledding Team
- The 1968 Lightweight Varsity & JV Crew Teams - among the USA's top-ranked Crew Teams & The 1967 Crew Team - winners of the Jope Cup for National Team Supremacy
- The 1968 Men's Swim Team, Winners of the Ivy League Title
- The 1967 Lightweight Crew Team - winners of the Jope Cup for National Team Supremacy
- The 1967 & 1966 Fencing Teams, Tied for Ivy League Championship

- The 1967, 1966 & 1965 Undefeated Women's Tennis Teams
- The 1966 Squash Team, Tied as winners of the Eastern Title & Ivy League Champions & The 1967 Squash Team, which tied for the Eastern Title
- The 1966 Men's Basketball Team, Winners of the Ivy League Title
- The 1964 Undefeated Freshman Football Team
- The 1964 Undefeated Men's Soccer Team

Special Recognition for Individual Champions*

- Mary Rue Brodhead, Recipient of The Fathers' Trophy as Outstanding Female Athlete, 1968
- Bill Creeden, 1965 Ivy League Player Of The Week, and Outstanding Football Player, 1966
- Charlie Dewey, All-Ivy, First Team, Soccer, 1967
- Barbara Linnehan Ellis, Recipient of the Ann B. Black Trophy, All-College, Hockey, & MVP, Basketball, 1965, 1966, 1967 & 1968
- Joe Geeb, Undefeated in Wrestling, 1968
- Tom Harlowe, All-Ivy First Team, Baseball, 1968
- Lynn Davidson Hazelwood, All-College Hockey
- Ted Isaacson, All-Ivy & All-Ivy & All American, All-Ivy First Team, Soccer, 1966
- Fred Levin, Undefeated in Tennis, 1967
- Roger Lorberbaum, All-Ivy First Team, Soccer, 1965
- Todd Makler, Sabre, 1968 US National Fencing Champion, All American & All-Ivy First Teams in 1966, 1967, 1968 and Olympian, Munich '72. Penn Hall of Fame, Inaugural Class 1991
- John Martinowich, All-Ivy Second Team Football, 1966 - 1967
- Larry Miller, All-Ivy, First Team, Soccer, 1967
- Ben Mortensen, All-Ivy & Honorary All-American, Football, 1967
- Rick Owens, Recipient of the 1968 Varsity Club Award & alternate Olympian in Track, Mexico City, 1968
- Anthony Parkinson, All-Ivy Second Team, Lacrosse, 1968
- Bill Purdy, Crew, Olympian in Mexico City, 1968
- Mollie Rush Purdy: All College, Hockey
- Pete Wisniewski: Recipient of the Class of 1915 - An Award for Penn's Ideal Athlete, 1968 - In Memoriam

Special Recognition for ATHLON, Women's Athletics Honor Society

Welcoming Iconic Coaches who are expected to join us: Ted Nash, Faye Bardman Donovan, and John Cervino.

Registration fee for the Breakfast is included in the Class of 1968 Reunion All Access Package or guests can register, a la carte, for $25 per person. The event title is, "The Glory of Competing Red & Blue: Celebrating Penn Athletes 1964-1968 and Champagne Breakfast" (listed under Saturday at 9 AM). To Register, visit <http://penn.reunioniq.com/>. For questions, call Lisbeth Willis at 215.573.7061. Please contact Elsie Sterling Howard, elsiehmiami@gmail.com, if you have updates to this list. Recognition list is current, as of February 26, 2018.