

HISTORY OF CLASS OF 1969 SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Class of 1969 Scholarship Fund 2018-2019 Recipients

Rachel C'21
Philadelphia, PA

Rachel is from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and is a sophomore Benjamin Franklin Scholar in the college. She is passionate about policy, education reform, and human rights and plans on entering politics to bring more justice into the world. At Penn, she is on the senior deputy board of Penn Democrats, a member of the Government and Politics Association, and interns at the Office of Councilwoman and Majority Whip Blondell Reynolds Brown. She is the author of the forthcoming book "Math Renaissance: Growing Math Circles, Changing Classrooms, and Creating Sustainable Math Education." Before coming to Penn, she was appointed by Mayor Nutter in 2015 and Mayor Kenney in 2016 to represent youth in Philadelphia and review legislation through the Philadelphia Youth Commission, of which she was the Vice Chair. In June, she received an official citation from City Council honoring her for her education reform work and her service to the city.

"I am incredibly grateful to you for financing my education at Penn. The wealth of opportunity I have been provided with so far at Penn has blown me away and it wouldn't be possible without your extremely generous contribution." Rachel

Nicole C'22
Los Angeles, CA

Nicole comes to Penn from Los Angeles, California. She is a freshman in the College to major in Computer and Cognitive Science, Finance, and Mathematical Economics. Nicole expresses an interest in applying for a JD/MBA to explore the idea of acquiring and using financial and legal skills to determine worthwhile investments. Summer Camp Leader, Varsity Tennis Captain, and tutoring peers are a few of her extracurricular activities. She is a Milken Scholar, Dean List and Honor Student. Her intern work includes Beach Point Capital, Tech Coast Angels, Expert Dojo, and Fitlogic Inc.

"By providing me with this scholarship, you have made it possible for me to explore my interests, find my passion, and prepare for my future career. Having already spent a week here. I feel like I am living a dream. I still can't believe that I am able to walk in the Quad or on locust walk every day around such accomplished professors, leaders. and students. Once again , thank you so much for providing me the chance to succeed at my dream." Nicole

History of our Fund

Established in 1998 through gifts from class members in honor of their thirtieth reunion and increased in 2004 in honor of their thirty-fifth reunion to provide financial support to an undergraduate, with preference for children of alumni whose parents experience economic reverses during their years at Penn.

Financial Summary as of June 30, 2018

Market Value: $562,813.87

Book Value: $399,256.71

Available Income for the 2016-2017 academic year: $28,761.05

Academic Year	Student Recipient
2018-2019	Nicole, C'22 and Rachel, C'21
2017-2018	Emily, ENG'18 and Rachel, C'21
2015-2017	Cameron and Emily, ENG'18
2012-2015	Jordan, C'17 and Sara, C'17, GR'18
2011-2013	Emily, C'13
2011-2012	Melissa, ENG'13, GEN'13
2007-2011	Mavis, C'11
2005-2007	Alexander, C'09
2001-2005	Maureen, E'05
2000-2001	Gavin, C'01
1998-2000	Marion, C'00

THANK YOU CLASSMATES FOR YOUR CONTINUED SUPPORT!