

Aliya Sahai is a Principal at Bernstein Private Wealth Management, providing investment and wealth planning advice to individuals, families and family offices and their trusts, estates, foundations, endowments and pension plans. Sahai joined the firm in 2005 and was appointed a Principal in 2009. She currently sits on the firmwide Women's Leadership Council. Prior to joining Bernstein, she worked at Sapient, consulting in the financial services industry, specifically to wealth management firms, and Yodlee, a financial services software company. Sahai earned a BS in economics from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. She is a very active member of the University of Pennsylvania community. She was appointed to the Trustees' Council of Penn Women. She is a member of the Wharton Lantern Honor Society and a University of Pennsylvania reunion committee chair. Sahai also works with women of all ages regarding job training, career readiness and financial education. She sits on the board of Sanctuary for Families and focuses her time on seeking job placement for women who are victims of domestic violence and sex trafficking.