

Jamie Kramer is the Global Head of the Alternatives Solutions Group for J.P. Morgan Asset Management. In this role, she leads hedge fund, alternative credit and multi-alternative investment solutions businesses totaling $15 billion in assets under management. She is a member of the Global Alternatives Operating Committee and the Asset Wealth Management Investment Committee, and is the founder of the Sustainable Investment Leadership Team. She also chairs the Investment Committee for Project Spark which provides proprietary JPMAM capital to third party funds managed by diverse, emerging Alternative managers.

Previously, she was JPMAM's Global Head of Strategic Product Management where she led innovation and ongoing product management across all asset classes and distribution channels. Earlier, she was the CIO and creator of the firm's Thematic Advisory Program, providing Global Wealth Management clients with innovative solutions while growing the program to $20 billion in assets under management. For nearly a decade, she also served as JPMAM's Global Head of Manager Selection, overseeing $200 billion.

She holds a B.A. from The University of Pennsylvania, an M.B.A. from The Wharton School and is a CFA charter holder. She is on the executive committee of the Trustees Council of Penn Women. Jamie enjoys golf, animal adventures, and dogs.
